THE LITTLE SOMETHING

Three cards to try

A calendar from The Little Something has 24 cards, one for each day in December. Here are three of them: two from the illustrated edition and one from the quotes edition.

Each card carries a thought and a question. Read it on your own, take one to your next team meeting, or write down your answer and give the card to the person who came to mind.

Ulli Dittgen-Noweski

The cards shown are from the German editions. For viewing on screen or printing on A4 landscape.

ILLUSTRATED EDITION · CARD 1

How to use it: In a team

Everyone names one person who helped carry something this year. Five minutes is enough.

How to use it: In a team

Everyone writes down a name and tells that person this week what for.

ILLUSTRATED EDITION · CARD 11

How to use it: In a leadership meeting

Who gives your team support that nobody sees? And do they know it?

And now your own edition

For Advent 2027 I develop calendars like these for companies, on different themes. With your questions, your design and your occasion.

If you would like to talk about it, write to me.
